

Dear Achyut Parajuli,

I recently saw your job posting for the Next.js Developer position on LinkedIn. Based on the information you provided, I am quite interested in this position. Upon review of my application materials, I hope that you can see why I would be a good fit for this job.

In my previous role at Yarsha as a Full Stack Developer, I have gained extensive experience in building scalable web applications using Next.js and other modern technologies. This experience has equipped me with strong skills in JavaScript, React, and backend development, allowing me to create efficient and user-friendly solutions. Additionally, during my time at Yarsha, I led a project where I developed a comprehensive e-commerce platform that improved user engagement by 30%, which further honed my abilities in team collaboration and project management.

My resume is attached to the email. Thank you for taking the time to look through my application materials. If you have any questions about the information I included, please reach out. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Janak Devkota
